Classes integrate Jewish history, law, language, practices, and ideas through direct study of primary sources, critical and reflective analysis, and group interaction. Classes meet once a week for 30 weeks over a two year period and are taught by knowledgeable and experienced adult educators. If you are looking to broaden your Jewish knowledge, the Melton School is for you! No previous background required and no tests.

RIMON Collaborative Jewish Learning in MetroWest

A unique model of community collaboration, bringing together some 50 synagogues and agencies in MetroWest to offer quality Jewish education to adults at beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels of learning. Launched in 2007, Rimon has presented the community with an extensive selection of lectures, classes, and programs offered throughout MetroWest by our partner synagogues and agencies. Planting the seeds of learning, Rimon means "pomegranate" in Hebrew.

A complete list of Rimon offerings and course descriptions is available at www.rimonnj.org.
